ELKS WIN FROM THE KAMS PUNAHOU DEFEATS MAILES

The Elks moved up a little further yesterday in their race to capture the second series and the Punahous pulled up a notch by defeating the Mailes with ease by a score of 6-1, and the score might easily have been larger.

For a time it looked as though the Kams might turn the trick, pull out and leave the Elks in the woods, but towards the end the herd refused to be left alone and pulled in a couple of runs. Reuter was in fine shape, and if the Kams always played as hard ball as they did yesterday, League standings might be materially changed. The feature of the game was a home run by Jones in the fourth inning which was the first dividend of the game. A beautiful play by Kia-Evers-White-Moore in the seventh retired two Kams at home and third and just saved the day for the Elks.

The second game introduced Castle into the Honolulu game again and he was well received as he always is. He seemed to put some ginger into the team and with Van Vliet stopping up the cavern which used to be around short things went along nicely for Punahou. Castle struck out a dozen men, four of them in succession. The Puns started in early to win and the way they rapped Freitas caused Joe Cohen's cigar to freeze. They got eight hits in four innings and four runs to begin with. At times Freitas got a hunch that he was "Zamlock the Great" and while he rolled the ball between his fingers the bases would fill up and slop over on the home plate. And it all happened in this fashion:

FIRST GAME.

ELKS-KAMS.

Game called 2:15 p. m.: The Kams went to bat and Sheldon was safe on Hampton's error. On Lota's fly, which Ringland missed, Pahu went to third, but Jones was the third man out on a fly to Vanatta.

Hampton got a pass from Reuter, Moore hit to short, who, instead of throwing to first, put Hampton out at third. Moore then stole, but Evers flew out to center; Cogswell struck out.

In the second no Kam went beyond first.

Vanatta was safe on Reuter's error, but went out on White's hit, short to second.

Ringland, an Elk importation, struck out in the last half of the third. Hampton followed suit.

In the fourth Jones set the crowd in the grandstand to shouting with a hit to right which netted him a home run. Hamauku singled, stole second, went to third on a wild throw by Jones. Plunkett hit to Evers, who put Hamauku out unassisted. Koki flew out to Vanatta.

The Elks were unable to pull out a run and the Kams registered a cipher in the fifth.

Kia hit to Plunkett, who threw way over first, and Kia traveled to third, scoring on Ringland's single to left. The latter tried for second and on catcher's error went on to third. Hampton struck out, Moore tried to bunt on the third strike and was called out.

In the sixth Jones singled to left, but the side went out before he passed second.

Cogswell sent one just over second. Vanatta knocked what appeared to be a three bagger, sending Cogswell across the plate, but Bowers called him out for not touching second.

Plunkett hit safe in the seventh, and was forced out on Koki's hit. Reuter lined a beautiful one to center. It looked like two runs, but Koki was put out at the plate, and White threw to third, putting Reuter out, and the Kams' hopes were sent a glimmering.

In the eighth Hampton walked. Moore was safe on Lemon's error, and Evers struck out. Cogswell lined one to right filling the bases. Vanatta came up with the crowd expectant, but went out on a pot fly. Wilder was only good for an easy grounder, and the Kams were accordingly let out of a tight place.

Hamauku singled after Lota struck out, but Plunkett flew out to Kia in center. Koki hit to Vanatta, who put Hamauku out.

SECOND GAME.

PUNAHOU-MAILES.

Game called 3:50 p. m.: The Mailes were up, but went out in regular order on grounders and flies.

S. Judd flew to center, but Ahrens lined a three bagger to right. Woods hit, but on an error by short was safe and Ahrens tallied. Woods stole third while Freitas slept. Myers found the latter for a three bagger, sending Woods home. Myers came in, the catcher dropping the ball. Desha hit to pitcher, went around and came home on a wild pitch. Castle received his pass and Van Vliet singled to left. E. Desha hit to pitcher, who waited around until everybody was safe.

McCorriston hit to first, who threw home, retiring Castle. G. Judd was the third man out, to first.
In the second Clark singled and stole second. Amoy hit safe and stole second. On an error by catcher, Clark came home. Chillingworth struck out; Wright went out pitcher to first.

Ahrens and Woods singled, but the Puns could not score again.

There was little doing for either side in the third and fourth innings.

In the fifth Castle struck out two men, the third retiring on a foul fly. Woods was safe, and advanced by Meyer's hit to right. Castle was given his passage and Van Vliet came up with bases full. He hit to pitcher, who threw home, retiring Woods.

G. Desha hit to Bruns, who made a bad error, and Meyers and Castle came in. McCorriston was the third out on a fly to short.

The sixth was devoid of special interest.

In the seventh Castle gave his first base on balls to Amoy.

Meyer made his third base hit. E. Desha was safe on Freitas' error, but Meyer was caught off third. Desha stole second. Castle walked. Van Vliet hit to Amoy, who put Desha out at third unassisted.

In the eighth Meyers made a pretty stop of Bruns' hot grounder. The latter tore past first, knocking Woods clear off his feet and reaching third, but the side went out before he got a chance to score.
McCorriston walked, G. Judd went out on a foul strike, and McCorriston went out on a forced hit of Ahrens' Woods went out second to first.

In the ninth Miller struck out, Honan was safe on G. Desha's error and stole second. Clark sacrificed second to first and Amoy struck out.

SCHRECK DEFEATS BARRY IN TWENTY-ROUND GO

Mike Schreck of Chicago knocked out Dave Barry, Pacific Coast champion, in the twelfth round at Salt Lake City on July 3. The fight went to within twenty seconds of the full twenty rounds, and while Schreck forced the fighting, Barry stood up under terrific punishment and showed great recuperative power. A right swing on the neck put the old Honolulu favorite down and out.

In the first five rounds neither man had any advantage. In the next six rounds Schreck forced the fighting, and the eighth and ninth showed Barry in distress. In the tenth when Barry was all but out he nearly felled his opponent with a right swing to the jaw. The eleventh, twelfth, and thirteenth were slow, and in the fourteenth Schreck fought Barry to a standstill. At the end of each following round Barry seemed to be out, but his recuperative powers or the gong saved him. In the twentieth and last round after he was knocked into the ropes he came back again fighting wildly, then went down and out, rolling under the ropes. It was a full minute before he recovered.

Marvin Hart sent a telegram challenging the winner, waiving all conditions, and agreeing to fight within thirty days.

Marvin Hart of Louisville, Ky., won from Jack Root of Chicago in the twelfth round at Reno on July 3, and claimed the championship of the world, which title was surrendered by Jeffries when he retired. The knock-out came like a thunderbolt from a clear sky and was a right swing for the stomach. Root says in explanation: "A chance blow. I am his superior and can lick him." Hart's deft is as follows: "I will fight any heavyweight in the world except a negro."

James W. Coffroth, prizefight manager, offers a $20,000 purse for a fight between Jimmy Britt and Battling Nelson. He also makes a flat offer of $10,000 for the fighter's share in the moving picture privilege. The fight, if it occurs, will be pulled off on Admission Day, September 9, at Colma, near San Francisco.

The Automobile.

There have been but few "round the island" trips this week, society preferring to stay in town for the Taft party, and it is safe to say every auto in town was in use on Friday; they were as thick as carriages almost. Miss Roosevelt made use of a car during her stay here, as did many of the others in the party, and that they saved considerable time goes without saying.

Mrs. Mary Armstrong of Honolulu is still at San Jose and is daily adding to her reputation as one of the most daring woman motorists in the state.

In the same white steam touring car that she drove to San Diego this spring, Mrs. Armstrong left the Hotel Vendome the other day for San Francisco. She started at eleven o'clock, had luncheon and shopped in that city, and withal, was back cool and fresh at seven in the evening, which, when you come to think of it, is rather amazing.

San Francisco society women are rapidly becoming adepts in the mechanism of the automobile. There was a time when the fair motorists was contented with the services of a driver, but now many prefer to be their own chauffeurs. Women auto enthusiasts rejoice in the fact that among the most famous automobile drivers of the world a woman holds top rank. Mme. Du Gast, of Paris, holds that distinction.

In the recent list of automobile owners compiled in California, there are seventy-two women who own cars, and of these forty-four having the daring and knowledge to drive them.

At the head of the list is pretty Miss Grace Spreckels, the most enthusiastic chauffeuse in San Francisco, who spends what time she does not have to waste on dressing, eating and sleeping, in her natty little autocar runabout. Miss Spreckels knows more about the mechanism of a motor car than the average automobilist. Mrs. Holbrook, formerly Miss Lily Spreckels, is also a fearless chauffeuse and enjoys motoring now in a powerful and handsome Columbia, a type of machine which is a prominent one among the smart set of New York and Newport. Mrs. "Ned" Dimond is another prominent woman motorist of the metropolis and she handles her four-cylinder autocar with all the skill of a past master at the wheel of a chug-wagon. There are numerous other notable drivers among the fair sex and almost every week other women become wedded to the chug-chug sport.

To show what the automobile is doing in a business way, the following letter from Nevada explains itself: "I have just finished the month of May's business and have driven the car, mark 45 Columbia gasoline, about 3500 miles; 45-1-2 trips between Tonopah and Goldfield, 60 miles; and 2-1-2 trips between Tonopah and Bullfrog, 225 miles, and carried about 600 passengers, and the car has not missed a single day except when business was dull. After today I will run from Tonopah to Bullfrog every other day, leaving Tonopah at eight in the morning, arriving Goldfield, 30 miles, at 10 a. m., and Bullfrog, 112-1-2 miles, arrive at 3 p. m., returning following day, Bullfrog 3 a. m., Goldfield 1 p. m., Tonopah arrive 3 p. m."

"The car is considered the best auto in this country and rides like an ocean liner with seven passengers."

Golf.

Considerable interest is being taken in the bogey tournament to be held on the Manoa links this morning, and it is expected that there will be the largest number of entries ever received for such an event, thirty-five being the very least looked for. It is requested that members desiring to enter be on hand at the Club House by 9:30 a. m., at which time the draw will take place. No entries will be received after 10 o'clock.

The last of this month a hole tournament will begin, which will last through August and September. As each member in the first round will be able to arrange his match with his opponent to suit his convenience, it is expected that every member in the club will participate.

Swimming.

The plans of the Myrtle Boat Club which were recently spoken of in regard to water sports have not been definitely decided upon. Whatever is done will not interfere with any water carnival plans, as the Myrtles and Healan's have an agreement to give a joint water carnival every year. The entertainment proposed by the committee will most likely be a club exhibition of fancy swimming, diving, racing and games, for the friends of the club, and no admission fee would be charged. Such an affair would do a great deal to create new interest in swimming and bring out new men.

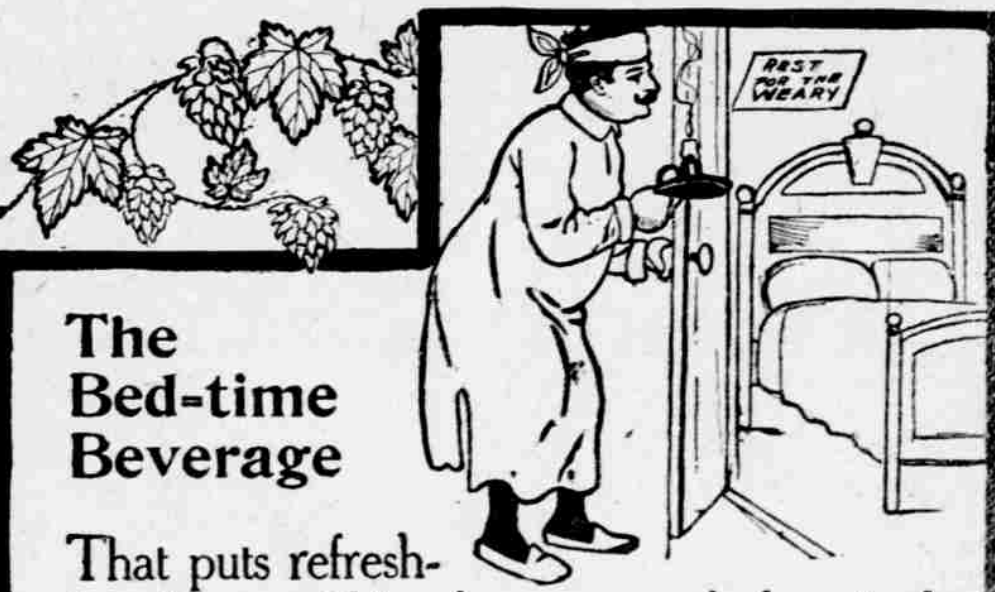

The resignation of Tom Hustace, the young swimmer, has not yet been accepted by the Myrtles.
